The Mossad was created to protect Israel at any cost. From its earliest days, it forged a reputation as one of the most ruthless and capable intelligence agencies in the world. Its agents captured Adolf Eichmann, the architect of the Holocaust, and orchestrated one of the most daring rescues in history at Entebbe. But behind the heroics lies another story, one of espionage against America, assassinations, false flags, and a relentless pursuit of power.

This episode of Forgotten History pulls back the curtain on operations Washington doesn't like to talk about. From the USS Liberty attack to Jonathan Pollard's betrayal, from whispers of Israeli involvement in 9/11 to the Pegasus spyware scandal, the Mossad's actions raise a chilling question: is Israel's greatest weapon also America's greatest threat?

No ally should be above accountability. Join us as we examine the history, operations, and controversies of the Mossad, the agency that blurs the line between friend and foe. Written and hosted by Mike Droberg. Forgotten History is a 10th Legion Pictures Production. #Mossad #ForgottenHistory #GovernmentSecrets
